Part of a group of local artists who organized during the difficult 2020 summer to meet up at a local outdoor coffee shop (one of the few that was open during the pandemic), and organize live painting & music sessions.

These live art sessions, which we held every weekend in June & July, were a massive boost for the community in a very trying time.

THE RBSA GALLERY EXHIBITION • BIRMINGHAM • OCT 2006 – TO NOV 2006

Exhibited as part of the “Friends of the RBSA” art exhibition in the late fall of 2006.

It was an amazing experience building new contacts in the art world, and learning from so many seasoned art professionals, especially at that stage in my budding art career.

X – RESOLVE & BY ANY MEANS NECESSARY – Series: Black Kings (2020)

“I believe that there will ultimately be a clash between the oppressed and those that do the oppressing. I believe that there will be a clash between those who want freedom, justice and equality for everyone and those who want to continue the systems of exploitation.” ~ Malcolm X

867.615 G – Series: X Faces; Find X
 (2020)

These images are from two art series that Paulie X has been working on for over 5 years now (although these entries were created between April – August 2020).

Series 1: X Faces; Find X

The 'X_Faces' series by _paulie_ is a strong feminist statement, portraying strong and beautiful women, with expressionless faces....

...aloof, but almost challenging the observer...

...defiant

...unwavering

...unyielding

...inscrutable in the face of the patriarchy.

Series 2: Black Kings

As the name implies, the Black Kings art series by Paulie X celebrates black male icons.

Stalwarts of a much maligned race.

As a black male himself, the artist personally identifies with the numerous challenges the black man faces in society to this day.

Assumptions that you are dangerous.

Surprise that you are smart.

Automatic associations with drug use.

The list is unending. The evils suffered even longer and worse.

This art series is a love letter to the Malcolm X's, Lewis Hamiltons, Obamas of this world...

Hold your head high little boy...

Walk in confidence BLACK KING

The Black Man Can!
